Mary Garden graduated from Waikato University with a B.Ed and Hamilton Teachers College with a Dip. Teaching. In 1973 she abandoned post-graduate studies to seek 'spiritual enlightenment' in India where she became entangled with various gurus. She escaped in 1980, and settled in Brisbane, Australia. She spent some years living in two eco-villages (Crystal Waters and Kookaburra Park) but now lives on 6 acres of mainly rainforest in Southeast Queensland. Her book The Serpent Rising: a journey of spiritual seduction – a memoir based on her experiences in India – was published in 1988. A second edition was published in 2003 (Sid Harta, Melbourne). She has written on a range of issues and her articles have been published in newspapers and magazines worldwide. Presently she is working on a biography on her father, Oscar Garden, one of the early long-distance pioneer aviators. www.marygarden.net
